Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. This is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleansness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

BELIEVES BOTH SIDES

When Republicans and Democrats Accuse Each Other.

TOMBSTONE, ARIZONA.

Ed PROSPECTOR:—My attention has been called to an article published in the Tucson Citizen, and reproduced in the Orb of September 18th. in answer to my letter published in the PROSPECTOR of August 29th.

Whether this article was first published as an editorial or an alleged communication, I cannot tell, not having seen the Citizen, but in either case it bears the unmistakable earmarks of the Post-Dispatch, St. Louis; reform opinions of the editor of that paper. The gist of the article is found in the following:

"The facts set forth by Mr. Reilly are of themselves so suggestive of corruption that, most of the actors in that drama being now dead, Mr. Reilly might charitably have omitted the hint of over persuasion and bribing, fortunately it so happens that the Republican party then in power and responsible for the legislation of that congress, is much alive today, proud of its achievements, boasting an honorable record with which it challenges comparison with the record of any party of any epoch of our history," etc.

So the Citizen says in effect. If a party has ever accomplished any good and glorious work I must not find fault with its bad work, nor try to reform such bad work, nor state the facts because such facts suggest "persuasion and bribery," and the men who did the work are dead. But this mode of reasoning is not original. It has been used to sustain every fraud, every imposition and every fetch that has cursed mankind since the world began.

And, Mr. Citizen, your opponents, the alleged Democrats, have for many years have used the same argument, and are still using it, and prostituting the names of Jefferson, Jackson, Benton and Josiah Wright to gain votes, and get boodles, with fully as much effect as your party are prostituting the names of Lincoln, Garrison and Blaine.

I was not questioning the honesty of the members of congress generally, nor was I looking for motives. I was merely stating facts and showing the results—the fruits of bad laws.

In the letter criticized, if I stated facts that were suggestive of over "persuasion or bribery," the facts should bear the blame. And I can admit, and have always been ready to admit, that the congress whose act created a bastard U. S. currency, the prolific source of national banks, bond slavery and industrial collapse, was composed in the main of noble American patriots, who deserve to be honored by their fellow men; but if any man believes that John Sherman, who has become a millionaire from a second master by thirty-six years of service in making laws, was or is an honest patriot, I may respect his belief but I pity his credulity.

The remainder of the article consists of a strong indictment against the Democratic party, and its management, and when the Citizen or any other Republican organ shows up the frauds, falsehoods, and general villainies of the Democratic machine, and the Democratic organs with equal fervor denounce the Republican machine, then if ever I can well believe both sides. Respectfully,

CONVENTION DATES.

Democrats, at Tombstone Oct. 6th

Republicans, " " Oct. 8th.

Populists " Bisbee Oct. 1st.

"We had an epidemic of dysentery in this vicinity last summer," says Samuel S. Pollock, of Briceland, Cal. "I was taken with it and suffered severely until some one called my attention to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I procured a bottle and felt better after the first dose. Before one-half of the bottle had been used I was well. I recommended it to my friends and their experience was the same. We all unite in saying it is the best." For sale by Druggists.
